

Hazard Identification Photoluminescent Edge Markers

Photoluminescent Edge Markers

The ideal solution for the marking of constructional components and objects which require both identification and protection.

Dual functionality of photoluminescence synonymous with all Jalite Products, producing an unambiguous message both in the light and total darkness!

Easily installed with adhesive and / or mechanical fix!

Product Code	Content Description
SB900K12	Kit contains 12 x 1.2m lengths of aluminium Edge Markers.

A must have for the marking of square pillars!

Typical environments include:

Car Parks, Warehouses, Factories, Industrial Units etc.

Not only do Edge Markers highlight and illuminate, they provide protection to vulnerable edges from knocks and scrapes usually encountered within industrial environments, constructed from aluminum with epoxy coating technology make this the durable choice for professionals who are serious about safety!

